Pathways

The certificates in Spoken and Written English aim to teach the English language to students for whom English is a second language. They are staged in levels which commence at very beginner (no English at all) to Certificate 3, which is written specifically towards preparation for either further study or employment.

The curriculum aims to teach students many aspects of life in Australia, and therefore prepare them for further education, community—and family—participation, and employment. Students are advised to continue their English studies, however, until they are fully conversant in the English language and this may take a number of years.

Curriculum

Following below is a list of the modules you will undertake as part of your course. The course level most suited to you will be determined at your interview, by your previous learning experiences, and by your teacher.
